and the same was approved by Probate Judge Trenchard.

Families desiring either Colonial or Shoshwater bay oysters can always secure them fresh at the Imperial oyster house, which makes a specialty of supplying families or parties.

The members of the Astoria hose team held a meeting last night and discussed the question of participating in the tournament to be held in Portland the fore part of September.

Judge Anderson of the police court had quite a grist yesterday. Five men charged with being drunk on the holy Sabbath day plead guilty and were fined $5 each. The city needs the money.

C. W. Carnahan and E. W. Taylor yesterday sold all the merchantable timber on their land in section 10, 6, 10, to N. D. Bain for the sum of $1867. The timber is close to the lands now being logged by Mr. Bain.

There is a restaurant in town which makes a specialty of serving fine meals, where prompt and good service can always be relied upon. This is the California Restaurant, which has just opened under new management, and is well worth visiting.

A gang of Chinamen have been busy the past few days building a road around Smith's point, where the slides occurred. They own large vegetable gardens around the point and are unable to reach the city, except by going over the hills.

An adjourned meeting of the county court will be held tomorrow at which time several road matters that were laid over from the regular meeting will be acted upon. The question of building the road around Smith's point will also come up for final action.

The Bee Hive announces its spring millinery opening on Page 4. With Easter so near, the subject is worth consideration. Our readers will understand what it means to have an expert milliner in charge of that department. The suggestion of come early is timely.

Petersen & Brown are prepared for a large holiday trade. Easter Footwear is an important subject, well understood by this firm of shoe specialists. Their announcement on the last page will be favorably received by men and women who seek stylish footwear.

On account of conscientious scruples, the billiard contest between Millard Hardesty and Prof. Loury at the Occident billiard parlors, did not come off Sunday night, both gentlemen attending divine worship. The match was played last night was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators.

Another Monday has gone by and the supreme court did not decide the Clatsop county court house case. No one knows when it will be decided, if ever, but the delay places the county in a very bad shape. It looks now as though nothing will be done in the construction of the court house this year.

The work of taking the census of Astoria was commenced yesterday by Assessor Cornelius, who has six enumerators in the field. Judging from the number of persons counted yesterday, the census of Astoria will reach nearly 15,000. Everyone is requested to give the enumerators all the information possible.

W. E. Dement states that he is contemplating fixing up the second floor of his brick building, over the Unique theater and Christensen's meat market into offices and rooms. The work of remodeling will commence as soon as the weather settles. Being in a brick building and a desirable location, there is no doubt but there will be many applications for the rooms.

Hon. John Fox has returned from an extended visit in the east, where he has been in the interest of the celebrated can filling machines of which the Astoria Iron Works has the exclusive patent. While in the east he established a branch manufacture of the plant in Chicago and sold a large number of machines. Chester Fox and Peter Kruse are in charge of the Chicago plant, and both are reported as well and enjoying themselves.

Low Ha, a native of China, fell down the hatch of the St. Nicholas Sunday night, striking on his head and fracturing the base of his skull. He was taken to the hospital and Dr. Fulton called in to examine the extent of his injuries. He had recently arrived on the steamer Oregon and was to have gone to Alaska to work in the cannery.
Whether he will go to Alaska or to other places is problematical.

The sensational newspapers of Portland published a letter written by Hon.
C. W. Fulton to the land department, relative to expediting a land claim for a man named Jones in Portland. They do not contend that Mr. Fulton did anything wrong, and the federal grand jury knew about the letters, but placed no importance to them. It was probably published more as an insinuation than as an item of news.

H. C. Wortman of Olds, Wortman & King, dry goods merchants of Portland, was in the city yesterday, the guest of Albert Dunbar. Mr. Wortman's firm is interested in the dry goods business in Astoria and he expressed himself as surprised at the rapid growth of the city and predicts continued prosperity. Mr. Wortman has returned from an extended visit in the east and reports the country generally prosperous.

A petition was circulated yesterday and numerously signed, asking the common council not to permit the Callender Transportation Company from driving any spiles at the foot of Twelfth street. It will be presented to the common council at its next meeting. The Callender Company petitioned the council for permission to drive spiles on their side of the river at the foot of Twelfth street, and the matter was referred to the street committee.

Portland never loses an opportunity to say something mean about Astoria or some of its citizens, and yet there are people that rush to Portland to do their trading, or if they can't go there, patronize some branch house in As-toria. Anything to take money away from the city. If people would patronize home industries, there would be more money in circulation, better business and better wages. One advantage Astoria has, none of the new comers go to Portland. They do their trading at home.

James Jamison of Jewell was in the city yesterday. He reports the roads in very bad condition and that it is impossible to haul any freight in or out. It would require but very little time and money to build a good road to the Nehalem, and if one were built, the farmers could raise sufficient potatoes alone to supply the Astoria market, and would be glad to sell them at 75 cents a sack. The people of Astoria pay enough more for potatoes every year than it would cost to build the road to the Nehalem.

They are having a moral wave of their own up at Cathlamet. Last week a petition, signed by a majority of the people, was presented to the board of county commissioners asking that the town be incorporated. The Cathlamet Sun claims that the saloon element fought the petition and the commissioners refused to grant the request.
Sunday an order was issued that all the saloons in Cathlamet should be closed. And they were closed. Prosecuting Attorney Fuqua will mandamus the county commissioners to grant the act of incorporation, and it will be presented to Judge Rice at the next meeting of the superior court.

More White Pine cough syrup has been sold in Astoria this winter than any other kind, because it gives instant relief. The Owl and Eagle drug store are sole agents for all the best goods.

A LUXURY

May yet be a necessity. Essential as potatoes are in every household, there is no reason to buy an inferior grade, when the best may be had at the same price. We have just received a carload of

COLORADO POTATOES.

They came from the state of Colorado, near the town of Greeley, where the soil is especially adapted to potato raising. Grown several thousand feet above sea level in a sandy soil, not unduly moist, these potatoes are thin-skinned and when served at your table, have just the right flavor. They are just

DELICIOUS AND MEALY.

Why not try a sack today. The price is the same as on other potatoes—

ONLY $1.35

Per 100 pounds. Prompt delivery too. We have two wagons and cater to your trade. A large, up-to-date store with a full line of good groceries. Telephone if you cannot come. We will call for your order.
